The late Bill Cooper, in his book 'Behold a Pale Horse', wrote about one of the ways the CIA (a CFR-communist organization, since Dulles) would repeal the 2A. One of the ways was using Manchurian-esque mind controlled victims, to do mass-shootings.

I am suggesting to you, that the rather odd shooting by a 37yr old active service Green Beret, who killed senior citizens and shot at children, was likely a test run for the 6th of Jan.

>How does this work?
In 1976, Robert G. Malech was awarded United States Patent 3951134 for remotely monitoring and altering brainwaves using radio. Remember 'Kyle Mockeridge' at Edwards AFB? He was one of the original test subjects.

Also Kyle Rittenhouse (another likely Orion controlled shooter)

>Schizoanalysis works differently (Nick Land)
It avoids Ideas, and sticks to diagrams: networking software for accessing bodies without organs. BwOs, machinic singularities, or tractor fields emerge through the combination of parts with (rather than into) their whole; arranging composite individuations in a virtual/actual circuit. They are additive rather than substitutive, and immanent rather than transcendent: executed by functional complexes of currents, switches, and loops, caught in scaling reverberations, and fleeing through intercommunications, from the level of the integrated planetary system to that of atomic assemblages. Multiplicities captured by singularities interconnect as desiring-machines; dissipating entropy by dissociating flows, and recycling their machinism as self-assembling chronogenic circuitry

if the cia really wanted to kill the 2A, they are morons and fucked up. in fact, from that viewpoint, they fucked up constantly for the last decade

Well that's where you fucked up. Rittenhouse is just some kid who got extremely lucky. The CIA is training people to walk into a crowd and start firing not get into a confrontation, run off and defend themselves when attacked.
Some good examples of MKUltra are Timothy McVeigh - He had nothing to do with the bombing but was a patsy. He called into Bill Cooper's show a year before saying that the army had been controlling his brain. Even former FBI LA director Ted Gunderson said McVeigh had nothing to do with it.
A good example might be Sirhan Sirhan. He had no memory of shooting RFK but when put under hypnosis he was able to recall it. The CIA had induced a split personality and trained the second one to be a killer. The Greenbaum speech describes how this is done through torture and sleep deprivation.

The glowies are priming the pump with these "attacks" and planting the ideas about right-wing terrorists into normie minds. This, combined with Trump requesting Magas to come to DC will set the stage for a massive false flag that will cause a backlash to conservatives and white people in this country, the likes of which have never been seen. The left has been talking about re-education camps and removing conservatives. They may just put a plan in place that would give them justification to make their final solution a reality.

I have this funny feeling you're not a real Cypriot.

You're not 'making a prediction.' You're casting a spell; trying to get minds on this and pseudo-'consenting' to it so they get pulled into perceiving and experiencing this chain of events, rather than an alternative. To which I say, fuck you, eat shit. I consciously reject your timeline and call on God eternal to blow you out.

IVY BLUFF PRISON AND PIEDMONT TRIAD FILM
>Prison was refurbished in-between 1999-2012, while supposedly derelict [Image #2]
>Was closed in 1999, while the prison population was growing, while in great working order, for no reason. Was a prison for boys [Image #6]
>Sold to Piedmont [Image #1]
>Piedmont has “two employees”, has no presence on Social media, is unclaimed on google, is listed as a consulting firm, and has tons of properties listed. Why would a film company have no social media presence? Why would a media consulting firm be attached to hundreds of properties including a formerly “derelict” prison? [Image #5]
>Piedmonts Board of Directors lists a member who has ties to Saturnscape Film [Image #4]
>Saturnscape film has only one produced film to its name, a shitty indy film it had purchased, and like Piedmont seems to exist only on paper.
>Saturnscape, despite its lack of a film lineup, has several future films projected, including “The First Dragon” scheduled 2025

May I suggest, you or someone goes there, to see if there's deliveries or activity?

This would determine if they're getting ready for use; even basic plumbing toilets etc, need to be flushed, if they're going to be used, so you would see some activity rather than nothin.

I would expect that these would be holding-internment camps, NOT CCP FoBs. The US Deepstate (Biden at least) seems to be in bed with China. They would use their own federal and military forces, NOT impose and try to transport 500,000 Chinese troops onto US soil.

Regardless of what actually happens, the media narrative will be that Trump's rally (which will be repeatedly compared to Hitler's Nuremburg rallies,) was a call for an armed insurrection by his supporters.

Whatever the glowniggers have planned, it will necessarily be something large-scale and horrifically vile, an act which they hope will turn public opinion against Trump's supporters and set the table for sweeping restrictions on civil liberties under Biden/Kamala.

We should also consider that the incoming regime has to begin purging the lower ranks of the military of right-wingers and massively alter the proportion of foreign-born soldiers in combat units. To this end, we should entertain the possibility that their terror plot will incorporate dissident military personnel or "stolen" military material.

I don't think much of anything is off the table with these people.

They don't need to. All they need to do is convince the young not to get guns and let the boomers die off without doing anything.
They've infringed on your rights and you've done nothing about it so why would you do something when they keep infringing? The guns are a false sense of security, they may protect you individually but they don't protect you collectively unless you actively use them.
Not to say you should be shooting up places of course, lone wolves accomplish nothing.

I have a bunch on the building project, but it centers around a total and utter lack of anything that could even be considered oversight
Despite that, and their overall obstinence in their replies, they built this bridge on regular time schedule for a project like this.
There's a lot on the actual site building but it's heavily documentation
They reach a conclusion to build the most expensive possible bridge for reasons that literally all of their own reporting contradicts.

>its about national fucking security

I'm glad you care about that.
I feel strongly about US Western leadership.
If the US becomes comprised by foreign State actors,
it has an impact on the rest of the world.

China, has of course tremendous influence and assets in the US.

It has asset acquired previously listed companies reverse-merged them with Chinese based corporations and to my understanding effectively 'defrauded' US investors, through mis-representation of these companies' accounts and productivity.

Unfortunately, the US-Chinese relationship is symbiotic. However, the Covid-19 shut down, will go some way to:

>decouple
>deleverage
>delegitimize

If US foreign policy chooses that direction.

I believe the Wolfowitz doctrine is still in effect; perhaps the Biden administration believes in 'kicking the can' with China, until the US is in a better position to deal with them, rather than creating a poly-centric world, or one where China becomes the Hegemon.

Even if it was a shell company that was used to divert funds, it can't just not exist like this. It doesn't even come CLOSE to being a legal enterprise.

Like I said, with the buisnesses in eagle pass, they have enough on paper to not be 100% able to prove they're fake. This doesn't. I used to do taxes professionally for a few years.

This is a joke as far as legality goes, and its name. "Piedmont TRIAD" is almost definitely a chinese shell operating illegally. This one wasn't supposed to be found.

>being a legal enterprise.

Why do you say that?
It's legal if:

-It's incorporated correctly.
-it file it's accounts.
-It has legimate directors /shareholders.

You don't need to have any Revenue to be 'legitimate'.
Some people 'park' corporations.
Property investment is just one way of avoiding inflation.
Nothing unusual in that respect.

However

This is important to look at.

Nothing will happen to trump and his family because he's a plant. The media, despite calling him hitler, a traitor, a danger to democracy, etc. will quickly turn the other cheek when it comes to trump. They will applaud him wanting to build back better but shill against his supporters who will be painted terrorists. The social media shilling will be the big wave of propaganda.

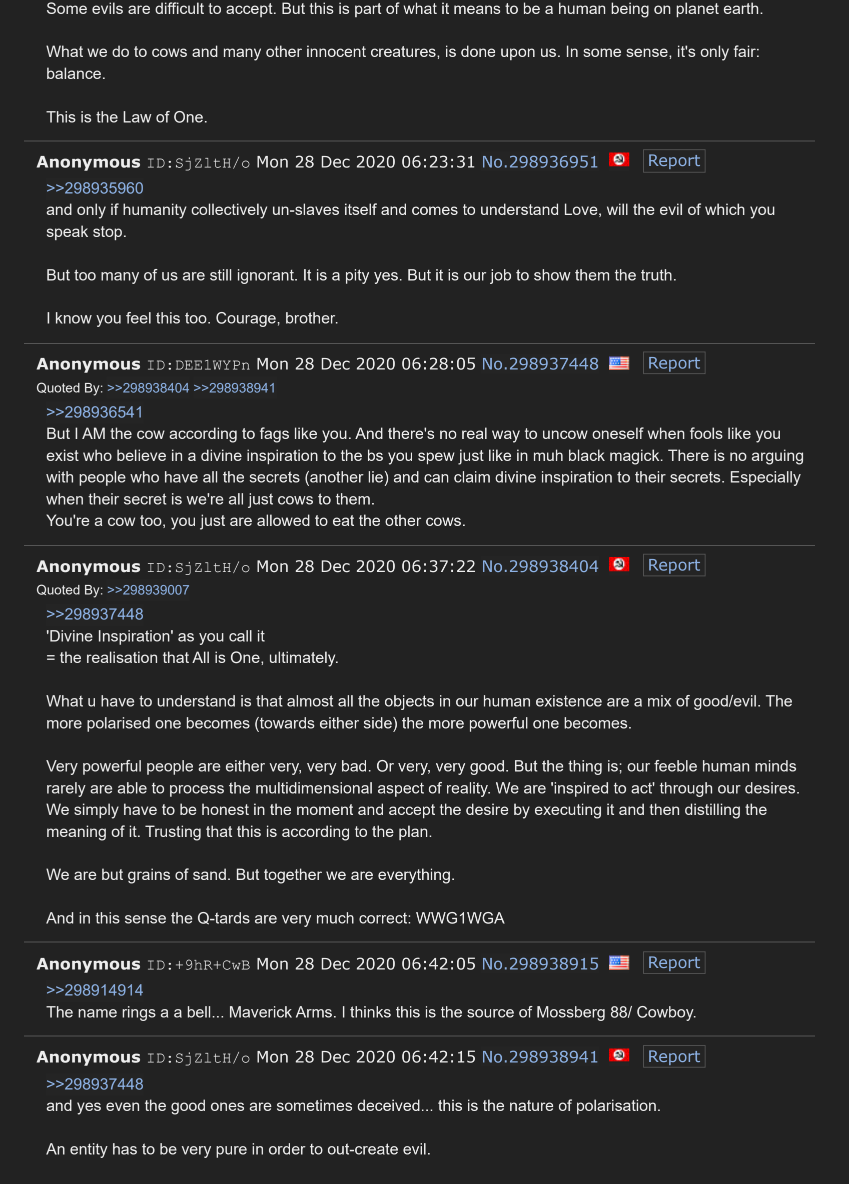
By the same standards you would now hate humans.

Or is the life of a cow worth less to you than a human's life?

Who are you to make such a Judgement, Sir?

Can you see now?



Some evils are difficult to accept. But this is part of what it means to be a human being on planet earth.

What we do to cows and many other innocent creatures, is done upon us. In some sense, it's only fair: balance.

This is the Law of One.

and only if humanity collectively un-slaves itself and comes to understand Love, will the evil of which you speak stop.

But too many of us are still ignorant. It is a pity yes. But it is our job to show them the truth.

I know you feel this too. Courage, brother.

But I AM the cow according to fags like you. And there's no real way to uncow oneself when fools like you exist who believe in a divine inspiration to the bs you spew just like in muh black magick. There is no arguing with people who have all the secrets (another lie) and can claim divine inspiration to their secrets. Especially when their secret is we're all just cows to them.
You're a cow too, you just are allowed to eat the other cows.

'Divine Inspiration' as you call it
= the realisation that All is One, ultimately.

What u have to understand is that almost all the objects in our human existence are a mix of good/evil. The more polarised one becomes (towards either side) the more powerful one becomes.

Very powerful people are either very, very bad. Or very, very good. But the thing is; our feeble human minds rarely are able to process the multidimensional aspect of reality. We are 'inspired to act' through our desires. We simply have to be honest in the moment and accept the desire by executing it and then distilling the meaning of it. Trusting that this is according to the plan.

We are but grains of sand. But together we are everything.

And in this sense the Q-tards are very much correct: WWG1WGA and yes even the good ones are sometimes deceived... this is the nature of polarisation.

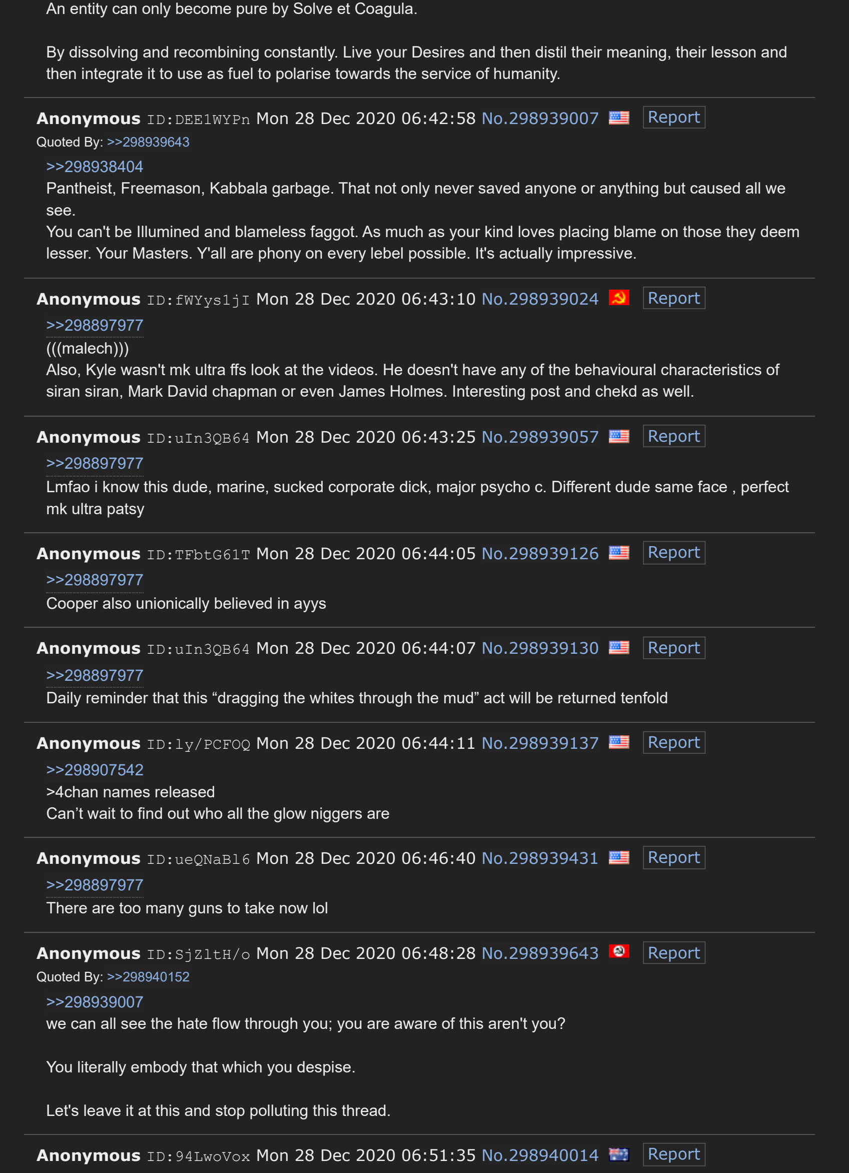
An entity has to be very pure in order to out-create evil.



An entity can only become pure by Solve et Coagula.

By dissolving and recombining constantly. Live your Desires and then distil their meaning, their lesson and then integrate it to use as fuel to polarise towards the service of humanity.

then you are a fool for not seeing that your hate creates further division; even the things that go against God are of God.

The Bible has been partially corrupted by the Orion group specifically to subvert the Christian religion.

Low info Christians like you take the bait and become zealots fuelled by hate.

You're (in part) a secret agent of Orion and you don't even know it.
